Attention Grades 7 and 8 Teachers Support the Scarlet, Gray, and Green Fair

The OSU Wooster Campus (OARDC and ATI) will be home to the fourth annual Scarlet, Gray, and Green Fair on April 17th from 11:00 – 6:30 pm. This festival will celebrate, educate and demonstrate that GREEN is for Life! Free to the public, the fair will feature exhibits, demonstrations, companies, artisans, entertainers, and food vendors in a fun-filled outdoor environment.

Are you looking for a way to celebrate Earth Day, 2012? Here is an opportunity for you to celebrate and participate in the 2012 Scarlet, Gray, and Green Fair. Encouraging your students to become environmentally responsible citizens will be time well spent.

Creative Art Competition - Create a visual art project that reflects and environmental stewardship theme. All media will be accepted. Projects will be judged on presentation, creativity, and ability to portray an environmental stewardship theme. Prizes will be awarded.

Informational Poster - Develop an informational poster on an environmental stewardship theme.

Timeline:

1. Complete and return attached registration form by March 2, 2012.
2. Complete entries by April 10, 2012. Projects and posters will be picked up at your school.
3. Every project will be awarded a first, second or third place ribbon. Certificates will also be given to each student who participates.

Get involved! Help preserve our Planet Earth!
